

New Italian Restaurant Offers Quaint Event Space

For Immediate Release- Wilmington, NC, April 2, 2012- Roko Italian Cuisine, in Mayfaire Town Center, offers a new option for private events. Chef Jadran Peros customizes menu options to meet the needs of local event planners.

The dining room seats over 60 people and can be reserved for private parties or corporate events. Event planners can create menus based on existing Roko favorites, or work directly with the chef to develop a menu that best suits their event.

"We offer a wide range of menu items combining fresh local ingredients and authentic family recipes," said Jadran Peros, head chef of Roko Italian Cuisine. "I have been cooking for over 25 years and can easily develop a menu tailored to the particular needs of each event."

Chef Jadran is currently serving homemade pastas, seafood, veal and chicken dishes. His wife, Vojka Peros, creates new desserts daily with fresh local ingredients that compliment any meal. From heavy hors d'ouerves to five course meals, Roko Italian Cuisine will customize the menu to accommodate any small function.

"We are eager to work with local businesses and event planners to support community functions," said Vojka Peros. "We are prepared to deliver exceptional service and unique cuisine."

The restaurant has booths and tables with crisp white linens and small votive candle centerpieces for its evening patrons. However, both the floorplan and décor of Roko may be tailored to reflect a desired theme or atmosphere.

For more information please visit www.rokoitalian.com or email events@rokoitalian.com.

For media inquiries please contact Andrea Peros at media@rokoitalian.com.

###